

EAGLE RIVER NATURE CENTER PROGRAMS

LEASHES SAVE LIVES IN BEAR COUNTRY

Dogs are required to be leashed while hiking on the Rodak & Albert Loop trails. Not only is this Anchorage Municipal code, but it helps protect your furry friend during a bear encounter!

THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1PM-3PM & SATURDAY, MAY 29, 11AM-1PM JUNIOR NATURALIST OPEN HOUSE | NO REGISTRATION BIRDING 101

Experience the challenges of each season as a bear would. Investigate bear biology and learn about how to mitigate bear conflict! Junior Naturalist programs are open to elementary school-aged students and their families—ask about earning your Junior Naturalist Badge. "Open House" means stop by anytime in that window.

SATURDAY, MAY 28 & SUNDAY, MAY 29

ADULT WORKSHOP | REGISTRATION & PAYMENT REQUIRED

$85 FOR ALL 3 SESSIONS | $45 FOR SESSION 1 ONLY

Join photographer Jamin Hunter Taylor for a comprehensive workshop equipping you to get better, more stunning images of a variety of bird species. Session one is a lecture covering equipment, field gear, photo composition, and general tips tricks, and methods for photographing birds. Session 2 starts with an early morning photography safari and, finally, a session in the Ed Yurt for an editing and post-processing workflow walkthrough to help you take your images from good to GREAT!

SUNDAY, MAY 29, 2PM-4PM NATURE JOURNAL CLUB

Whether you've been nature journaling for a long time, or just want to try something new, this is the community for you! Meet in the main building for a deep exploration of the monthly nature journaling prompt (posted at www.ernc.org). This is a casual drop-in meeting. Bring your own supplies. No registration required.
